Women, Never Date These Kinds of Men

Many of us are challenged with superficial dating habits. Most often we choose a mate based on physical appearance, what that bank account looks like or maybe even some special talent our potential partner may have. If this is how you are choosing a potential mate, chances are your relationships are full of drama and full of many sleepless nights.

TALK TO THE HAND CAUSE I AIN'T TRY'IN TO HEAR THIS SHXXX!!!!!!

I must confess I have made some really bad choices in my selection of men. This can happen to anyone, but as the expression goes "Fool Me Once Shame On You, Fool Me Twice Shame On Me".

After being tricked once, one should be wary, so that the person cannot trick you again.

I'm not a expert in giving this kind of relationship advice (or maybe I can be) so I choose a source that I felt was an authority on this topic.

#10 Don't ever date a guy that looks better than you!!!

He doesn't have to be unprepossessing or repugnant. This kind of guy is just a little more tolerant of you and will focus more on you. Most times they are excellent providers. I not saying this kind of man is a push over. In order to make things work you must be respectful of the relationship and boundaries. Pretty Boys on the other hand are high-maintenance there are a lot of sacrifices you will have to make. With great looks sometimes comes a narcissist, who exudes feeling of entitlement. (Not all but many). There can only be one Diva in the relationship.
